Chair's Notes

Adam started the meeting with congratulations to the club for this year's success. Pointing towards all the trophies and medals won throughout the year. Since there were many things to be done on the day the voting started straight away.

New Committee Positions (Votes)

Chairman

James explained that he had a good rapport with the AUs financial team, and had built up many successes throughout the time he had already been on committee; James also stated that he planned to keep good contact with the LSU media, and that he had a plan to reintroduce IMS archery; when questioned how he would be able to do this, James was not aware that Adam had already been in contact.

Ben explained that he had been on the committee and served as Secretary for all of the previous Chairmen after James Cowie. During questions, Ben was asked how he would make sure the club is better represented by LSU media in which Ben explained that he had been writing articles whilst he has been a secretary; and that he would be happy to assist the new secretary in writing about the clubs (and their individual successes).

Secretary

Matthew explained that his main strengths included his organizational skills, which he felt was an important trait for a Secretary to have, he extended on the question asked earlier about publicity by explaining that it was one of his main interests, pointing out that he had been sure to post results of all competitions whilst he has been a team captain. He also explained that he likes to put the clubs interests before his own, reminding the club that he hasn't put himself up for competitions.

James showed that he had the administrative skills needed for being a Secretary, highlighting that he had been in charge of account sheets and budgeting work beforehand, and that he could transfer these skills over to the new secretary position. James explained that he had skills in communications; showing that he would be fit to fulfil publicity roles of the secretary.
